

While the 18th century restored homes and historic Yorktown Battlefield are captivating, lush wooded lots and quiet pace are reasons most residents live in York County.

Yorktown is part of the Historic Triangle of Yorktown, Jamestown and Williamsburg. Immerse yourself in 300 years of history and enjoy lodging in a hotel or bed and breakfast nestled among the village streets and paths or overlooking the York River. Here you can experience 18th-century homes and revolutionary battlefields. Picturesque streets are the backdrop for art galleries, antique and specialty shops. Visit the museums offering hands on programs and exhibits. Stroll along the scenic riverwalk and relax on the sandy beach at river's edge. Take a ride on our free trolley then march to the beat of the fifes and drums during one of their performances. After working up an appetite, dine at one of our charming restaurants, some with a view of the York River.

To add to the charm, enjoy a sail on the York River during the day and when the sun goes down, don't miss the candlelight walking tour - complete with tales of ghosts said to haunt the village. In Yorktown, there's something for everyone.

Retirees and professionals alike enjoy the quaint, small-town atmosphere that contributes to the high quality of life. Excellent schools, strong neighborhoods and acres of undeveloped farm lands have been attracting more young families to the county for the last few years.
